Name:_____ Date This Sheet Started: _____/_____/_____

Date
210
205
200
195
190
185
180
175
170
165
160
155
150
145
140
135
130
125
120
115
110
105
100
95
90
85
80
75
70
65
60
55
50

A normal BP. should be less than 140/90 (bold lines)

For patients with diabetes, kidney disease, heart disease, or strokes, your target BP should be less than 135/80 (dotted lines)