Research Career Development Core
Research Retreat
Human Research across the Translational Spectrum:
From the Lab to the Real World

Location: U-M Geriatrics Center, 300 N. Ingalls, 9th floor, Room 906

Thursday May 30, 2013
9:00 am
How to Write a Decent Grant Proposal
Richard Miller, MD, PhD
Professor of Pathology and Research Professor, Institute of Gerontology;
Associate Director for Research, Geriatrics Center; University of Michigan

10:45 am
Caregiving: Research, Translation and Practice
Linda Nichols, PhD
Professor, Department of Preventive Medicine, Department of Internal Medicine,
University of Tennessee, Memphis; Health Services Researcher, Memphis VA Medical Center

Friday May 31, 2013
9:00 am
Disability and Rehabilitation Outcomes using Secondary Data: The Example of Readmission
Kenneth Ottenbacher, PhD, OTR
Russell Shearn Moody Distinguished Chair in Neurological Rehabilitation;
Professor and Director, Division of Rehabilitation Sciences; Senior Associate Dean for Research & Graduate Education, School of Allied Health Sciences; Director, Center for Rehabilitation Sciences; Associate Director, Sealy Center on Aging
Professor, Department of Internal Medicine, Division of Geriatrics

10:45am
Ingredients in Building a Translational Research Team: Vision, Passion and Purpose
Lona Mody, MD, MSc
Associate Professor, Department of Internal Medicine, Division of Geriatrics and Palliative Medicine, University of Michigan; Associate Director, Clinical, VA Ann Arbor Health Care System GRECC.

All sessions are open to the public with the exception of mock study sections and meals. No registration required.

Sponsored by: Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Center - Research Career Development Core and U-M Geriatrics Center