University of Michigan Medical School
Department of Internal Medicine and the Congenital Heart Center
Proudly announces
Grief Awareness Week Keynote Lecture
Wednesday, May 13, 2015
12:00 – 1:00pm
Ford Auditorium

On Purpose: New Directions in Life, Death, and Health
Keynote Speaker: Dr. Victor Strecher

At the end of this presentation, participants will understand and be able to implement:

- The value of helping patients and one’s professional self-find purpose when confronted with death or other life-threatening situations.
- New methods for grief and loss as it relates to professional practice.
- Psychosocial and existential issues related to loss in patients’ lives and how that relates to health behaviors.

*All UMHS staff are invited and encouraged to attend

For information contact:
Susan Sefansky, LMSW at sefansky@med.umich.edu

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the University of Michigan Medical School and Office of Decedent Affairs. The University of Michigan Medical School is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The University of Michigan Medical School designates this live activity for a maximum of xx AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s). Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.