

Crohn's and Colitis Student Initiative University of Michigan Student Resources

- Services for Students with Disabilities (Main office: G-664 Haven Hall)
 - <http://www.umich.edu/~sswd/>
 - Registered doctors note with the University
 - Allowed bathroom breaks as needed during an exam without penalty
 - Early registration for classes
 - Guaranteed exam and assignment make-up for disability related absence

- UM Hospital College Clinic
 - Guaranteed appointments for college students the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month (new patients welcome)
 - College Clinic phone number: 1-888-229-7408

- Crohn's and Colitis Student Initiative
 - Peer forum led by UM students, faculty and physicians
 - Search CCSI on Facebook
 - Email ccsi.info@umich.edu

- Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America
 - www.ccfa.org
 - Information and helpful resources about living with Crohn's and Colitis

- Doctors and Nutritionists
 - Following or trying different diets may help with IBD symptoms
 - Make a free appointment with UHS:
<http://www.uhs.umich.edu/nutritionclinic>
 - Ask about the FODMAP diet: <http://ibs.about.com/od/ibsfood/a/The-FODMAP-Diet.htm>
 - If you need a doctor at UHS, ask for Rob Ernst or Bob Winfield