

DEATH LIST

STILL GROWS

"FLU" CLAIMS MRS. H. U. GAVETTE MONDAY LAST.

Kessler-Morris, Nat Morris, Gail Moore, Clinton McCutcheon, J. S. Barnhill on Roll.

Mrs. H. U. Gavette

November 4th, 1918, marked a very sad hour in the lives of some of our people when Mrs. H. U. Gavette passed away at her ranch home near Paullin. Mrs. Gavette had been ill only a few days, as was her husband also. On Tuesday, Nov. 5th, she was laid to rest in the cemetery here.

Ellen Winifred Gabler was born near Grafton, Nebraska, March 6th, 1893. She was therefore twenty-five years, seven months, and twenty-eight days of age at the time of her death, November 4th, 1918.

When ten years of age, she moved to Paonia, Colorado with her parents, where she lived until five years ago. She was a member of the Paonia Christian church and was educated in the Paonia public schools, graduating from high school with the class of 1912. During the summer of 1911 she attended C. S. N. S. She taught school during the fall and winter of 1912 at Tuscaroro, Nevada. In June 1913 she was united in marriage to H. U. Gavette. To this union one child was born, Harry Gavette Junior, who, with his father is left to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted mother and wife. Besides the husband and little son, she leaves to mourn her going her parents, two sisters and five brothers, as well as a host of friends.