

Scholarly Works

October – December 2023

Appointment to Professional Society or Board

Tonya Walder. International Transplant Nurses Society. Chicago, IL. 2023-2025.

Books, Book Chapters, or Book Editors

Gisslen, K. (2024). Failure to Thrive. In Young, R, Wuerth, A (Eds.) Clinical Handbook of Pediatric Gastroenterology. St. Louis, MO: APGNN.

Manuscripts

Labaki, W., Meldrum, C. A., Murray, S., Galban, C., Kazerooni, E. A., Barr, R. G., et al. (2023). Initial findings from two US-based early COPD cohorts: MAP COPD and SOURCE. European Respiratory Journal, 62(67). DOI: 10.1183/13993003.congress-2023.PA4139

Marsack, J. E., Bathish, M. A., & Lee, D. R. (2024). Sustainability efforts in healthcare simulation and clinical learning: An international survey. Nurse Education Today, 132, 105990.

Marsack, J. E., Cherney, R., Brunvand, L., Folbe, E., Dobry, A. J., Jones, E., & Munro-Kramer, M. L. (2023). Innovate 4 Change: An interdisciplinary nursing student-led hackathon. Nursing Outlook, 71(6), 102048.

Oral Presentations

Brooks, J. (2023, October 14). Bringing it back home: A quality improvement project to promote quality and safety in organ allocation. International Transplant Nurses Society Annual Conference, Dallas, TX.

Cavin, T. & Walder, T. (2023, October 13). Impact of an A2 to B program on transplant rates and waiting time for B blood type kidney transplant recipients. International Transplant Nurses Society Annual Conference, Dallas, TX.