THE UMHS FINANCE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM (FDP) WAS CREATED TO IDENTIFY HIGHLY TALENTED INDIVIDUALS TO LEAD FINANCIAL INNOVATION AND SUPPORT THE EDUCATIONAL MISSION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN HEALTH SYSTEM.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The FDP consists of two career development experiences for candidates:

Summer Internships
- 12-week rotational experience for highly qualified undergraduates.
- Contribution to two rotational assignments within UMHS central finance or participating clinical departments.
- Focus on developing highly transferrable finance and leadership skills.

Fulltime Rotational Program
- Two-year development rotation designed to further develop technical skills, strengthen leadership acumen, and identify areas for long term contribution.
- Four 6-month rotational assignments across UMHS.

Who We’re Looking For: UMHS is seeking highly qualified undergraduate business students for summer analyst positions and to become full-time members of the UMHS finance team as FDP analysts.

Qualified candidates should display interest in the program and be able to demonstrate financial competency, willingness to learn, leadership ability, and a collaborative mindset.

UMHS FACTS

The University of Michigan opened its doors to train new doctors in 1849. In 1869, U-M opened the first university-owned hospital in the United States. Today:
